LPD case 2010-1486

At approximately 3:49pm on Sunday, February 7th, 2010, Lafayette Police Officer Bryan Landis was approached outside of the police department by the victim of a strong armed robbery. The victim reported that he had been battered by two white male suspects and that cash had been taken from his person.

Through the initial stages of the investigation, Officer Landis and Officer O'Shields were able to locate the suspects in the robbery near the intersection of N. 13th Street and Columbia Street. Further investigative efforts resulted in the arrests and incarceration of both Timothy Budde and Christopher Wilson for Robbery and Theft. In addition, an undisclosed amount of cash, similar to that which was reported stolen in the robbery, was recovered from the suspects.
